This letter confirms the commercial terms for the MVP engagement selected from the proposal “Yale Migration Workflow Automation — Hours Breakdown + MVP Option” dated 19 July 2026 (the “Proposal”). The Proposal defines the scope of the 48-hour MVP; this letter defines the commercials. Phase 2 (49 hours) will be quoted separately once the MVP is live.

What Happens Immediately After Acceptance

1. Commencement invoice issued today.
2. The access checklist (from the Proposal's "What We Need From You to Start") sent the same day the invoice is settled.
3. 45-minute kick-off call scheduled.
4. Build starts the same week access is provided.

Note: the WhatsApp Business application with Meta should be started right away — Meta's approval time is the longest single item in the timeline.

Terms

- Firm 48-hour cap; anything beyond is quoted as a written change order before any additional hours are used.
- Scope is locked to the delivered document set — SOPs, workflow diagrams, checklists and the fee workbook. Any new processes introduced after kick-off are quoted as a small add-on.
- Contingency hours inside the MVP are credited back if unused.
- 30 days of post-launch defect support included — any bug or misbehaviour in delivered scope is fixed at no additional charge.
- 3 business-day review windows on drafts and demos.
- Milestone sign-off by email — a short confirmation reply is enough.
- If the project is paused, hours already worked are honoured; any remaining unused hours can be resumed within 90 days.
- Yale Migration owns 100% of all deliverables — workflows, scripts, sheets, templates and prompts — built inside its own accounts, with all access transferred at handover.
- Client data never leaves Yale's own systems and is not used to train AI models; API usage runs on Yale's own keys.
- Either party may end the engagement with 7 days' written notice; completed hours are billed and all work-to-date is handed over.
